You will see the cell where Paul and Silas were imprisoned and other archaeological sites in the area. You'll continue from there to Kavalla, the site of the ancient port of Neapolis where Paul arrived on his first journey to Macedonia. You will have some time to stroll around this scenic port lined with cafés and shops. On the way back to Thessaloniki you will visit the old city ramparts in the upper part of the city before returning to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Thursday, April 28 - Today you will tour Thessaloniki where Paul preached and founded a church. You will visit the St. George Church (an ancient Roman monument transformed into a church), and the Galerius Arch which rises over the famous Via Egnatia. You will then visit the Church of St. Demetrios, built on the ruins of the ancient synagogue where Paul reasoned with the Jews.
